Tasting Notes

Dry and elegant Riesling offers a highly refined bouquet with mineral notes (flint stone), floral and slightly fruity aromas (citrus), pine tree sap and cinnamon characteristics. This shiny and limpid wine is a pale yellow colour with light green tints. It boasts a very fresh nose, developing mineral-style aromas. Some citrus notes (lemon, orange, grapefruit) complete its aromatic expression. Refined, this is a lively and thirst-quenching wine, true to its grape variety of origin. The attack on the palate is frank and refined. It gently develops an impressive array of aromas (white flowers) with a well-structured base as well as plenty of volume and character. Perfectly well-balanced, this Riesling is very persistent on the finish with a pleasant mineral note mixed with white flowers.

Food Pairing

From a gastronomic view, Riesling goes especially well with seafood and white meat: refined grilled fish or served with a sauce, shellfish and seafood, oysters, sauerkraut, cock stewed in Riesling, winegrowers pie, frog's legs, eel stew, Baekaoffa and cold cuts.

In 1957, winegrowers from Pfaffenheim came together to create La Cave des Vignerons de Pfaffenheim.

In 2020, the "1957 by Pfaff" range is a tribute to these founders, the heritage of their know-how, Alsatian excellence.
